The War Department telegram informing Mrs. Price that her son was missing arrived Wednesday evening. It stated that he was "missing in action over Australia" but Mrs. Price believes the word Australia was an error and that more likely her son was flying over Austria as he had many times before. The telegraph company is asking for a check and confirmation of the message.

Sergeant Price, radio gunner on a B-24 four-motor bomber, was believed by his mother to be near the end of his tour of duty in Italy. She had expected he soon would be given a leave of absence to return to the States.

Letter Today

Sergeant Price in recent letters had mentioned bombing missions to Munich and Foggia. Planes from Italian bases have frequently bombed the Ploesti oil fields in Romania. Mrs. Price received a letter this morning, dated July 24, from her son in which he spoke of being "extremely busy" and said he expected to continue to be very busy during the remainder of his stay in Italy. Because of the press of duties he warned her not to be worried by long intervals between letters. He referred to the mission to Munich on which "we were careful to hit our targets, leaving the beer gardens for the infantry when they arrive." Referring indirectly to considerable losses among the personnel of his group, he said new men had been recruited to fill gaps in his crew. He spoke also of seeing Harry Bream, of Cashtown, frequently and of having "good times" together

Well that's an argument we needn't my to settle here. Probably all agree that just but heavy retributton is necessary to prevent repitition of aggression, and in this connection I call attention to the which will be hell.

Our column yesterday pointed out that the next few weeks are going to be among the most crucial of the war for Germany. This is the period of the great retreat of Hitler's broken armies to his inner defenses -a catastrophic reversal of the victorious blitzkrieg with which he opened the war. It's the period which will give the Germans the worst purishment they've endured in modern history. They will be undergoing both the strain of their feats and retreats.

Thus both military and civilians are about to be put through a fierce test of morele. Der Fuehrer will be lucky if they don't crack up. Severe Casualties

The defeats the Germans are suffering now are far worse than anything they encountered in the last already the present conflagration has claimed an estimated 9,000,000. Countless thousands may die in the next few weeks.

THE GREAT UNORTHODOX

It is inspiring to go to such writers as Emerson, Montaigne and Whitman-for they traveled the broad road. They wrote honestly. They revealed the proud heritage of themselves. They built log fires of courthis helped to keep a cold world warm, for it made builders and men of action out of the willing. Edgar Lee Masters, in writing of Emerson, said that he "wanted the broad Atlantic to be the ferry of the free." He also said that this man "believed that the sun would be taken out of the skies before the love of freedom would be taken out of the breast of man."

But the conservatives of Emerson's day wanted little of him, as campment. they wanted little of Montaigne and Whitman. Said Emerson, in the ripest period of his years: "Why has never the poorest college offered me a professorship of rhetoric? I think I could have taught an orator, though I am none." Today, long after that mind and body are dust in the earth, the schools and colleges use the writings of Emerson as models of rhetoric in their class-

Attorney General Biddle enroute to the west coast said the government believed conspiracy lay behind the strike of the Philadelphia Transportation company's 6,000 workers, which tied up all of the city's transportation, cut war production and instigated clashes between negroes and white. He told reporters "a company union" had engineered the strike.

In Washington, Senator Russell 12 years. (D., Ga.) accused government leaders of trying "to intimidate workers throughout the nation" by using "unusually drastic means" to halt the Philadelphia strike.

In a speech on the Senate floor, Russell contended the procedure "enforced labor with a vengeance" and said he doubted "whether more drastic means have ever been employed by any totalitarian state.'

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Mayor Thomas C. Martin of Wellsville and the Wellsville Yankees had to rescue Plate Umpire Leo Fournier from an angry mob of fans last night as the Bradford Blue Wings scored a 10-9 victory over the home team.

The near riot developed in the last of the ninth when Fournier called a third strike on Yankee Catcher Steve Sefick. The throw by Bradford Pitcher Smokey Intindola appeared inside to fans, and within seconds Tullar field was filled with angry spectators.

Fournier escaped to the umpires' room, and Yankees formed a bodyguard to escort him from there to Mayor Martin's car after fans attempted to tip over a police car called to the scene.

Meanwhile the second - place Jamestown Falcons collected 12 hits to defeat the league-leading Lockport Cubs 7-1, and the Erie Sailors nosed out the Batavia Clippers 5-4.

The Hornell Pirates claimed an 8-2 win over the Olean Oilers when Hornell pitcher Marty Fasano tossed up a three-hitter to beat Mel Himes, the league's leading pitcher. Himes was batted out of the box in the seventh.

Today's games: Lockport at Jamestown, Wellsville at Bradford, Olean at Hornell, Erie at Batavia.
